

THE AFRICANA STUDIES PROGRAM
AT GETTYSBURG COLLEGE and
THE CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA CONSORTIUM present

4th Emerging Scholars in Africana Studies Conference
Keynote Speaker

Shane Ortega

Trans Activist, Land Rights Activist, and Organizer for Afro-Indigenous Solidarity

We Sit at the Doorway of Awakening

Africana Studies is excited to host trans activist, land rights activist, and organizer for Afro-Indigenous solidarity “Shane Ortega as the keynote for the Emerging Scholars in Africana Studies Conference.” Ortega’s talk, We sit at the doorway of awakening, will address how to confront the conditions of our current reality with a call to “reattach and awaken our ancestral memory and purpose” through a commitment to “accountability, compassion, decolonizing historical illusions, and brave vulnerability.”

We hope you can join us.

This event is free and open to the public

SATURDAY, MARCH 27 ▸ 3:00PM

Remote/Virtual viewing at

<https://gettysburg.zoom.us/j/91762796504>

Gettysburg
COLLEGE